

MISSIONS EXPLORER PARTNERSHIP

Engagement for Emerging Missions Candidates

THE PATHWAY

Joshua Project has launched a dedicated Missions Explorer page for individuals in transitional life seasons: college graduates evaluating career paths, professionals sensing a call to missions, or empty nesters discovering renewed purpose. These explorers are asking fundamental questions about their place in the Great Commission.

The Missions Explorer page meets explorers where they are, providing an accessible entry point to understand the urgency of reaching unreached people groups with the gospel.

LEARN

Understanding core missions definitions, the biblical mandate for unreached peoples engagement, and the current state of global gospel access

PRAY

Grow personal prayer life by praying for specific unreached people groups through informed, strategic prayer

ENGAGE

Exploring tangible ways to participate in frontier missions, from digital evangelism to on-the-ground presence

THE ENGAGEMENT FRAMEWORK

For explorers drawn to engaging, our explorer page provides clarity on the spectrum of missions involvement:

- Digital evangelism opportunities
- Short-term engagement
- Mid-term service
- Long-term missionary calling

PARTNER BENEFITS

Missions Explorer Partnership -
$4,000 annually

THE STRATEGIC VALUE

This partnership creates a sustainable pipeline of emerging missions candidates who have self-identified their interest level and preferences.

For explorers, the partnership ensures they're connected with established, trusted organizations capable of guiding their journey from curiosity to committed service among the unreached.
