

Azeris in Azerbaijan

The homeland of the Azeris was first conquered by the Persians in the sixth century BC. Islam was introduced into the area during the seventh century, AD. Azerbaijani settlements were traditionally divided into villages made up of extended families. In an attempt to protect their culture, marriage within the family was encouraged, often between cousins. Religious practices are less restrictive of women's activities than in some Muslim countries. Many women have jobs outside the home.

Ministry Obstacles

The Azeris have centuries of historical commitment to Islam, not easily changed.

Outreach Ideas

Georgian Christians may be able to carry the gospel message to the Azeris. Gospel radio may also be helpful.

Prayer Focus

Pray that followers of Jesus among the Azeri will faithfully fellowship together, be well-taught in the
