

Balinese in Malaysia

The island of Bali is probably better known than the country of Indonesia. The word “Bali” brings to mind visions of a tropical paradise. Its beauty, friendly people, exquisite art, and unique culture have made Bali a favorite destination for millions of tourists from around the world. Balinese people reside on this “island of the gods.” Many Balinese people also live on the nearby islands of Lombok, Lampung, Sulawesi, South Kalimantan, Sumbawa and Papua, and Malaysia, a beautiful country near Indonesia.

Ministry Obstacles

There are no known believers among the Balinese in Malaysia. Close-knit societies make it especially difficult for a member to find their way to the cross.

Outreach Ideas

There are resources in the Balinese language, including a complete Bible and the JESUS Film. Perhaps Malaysian believers from other people groups will be burdened to take Christ to the Balinese people.
