

Batahin in Sudan

The numerous Baggara tribes of northern Sudan, including the Batahin, share many cultural characteristics and claim a common ancestry. All of them speak an Arabic dialect known as Baggari, which can be understood by both Arabic and Sudanese Arabic speakers. They are nomadic cattle herders.

Outreach Ideas

There are nomadic peoples in East Africa who have embraced the savior. Perhaps some of them can go to the Batahin Baggara community.

and intercession. Pray that the Christians living in Africa would be stirred with vision for outreach and a genuine burden to reach out to the Baggara tribes. Ask the Lord to raise up network of fellowships among the Batahin.

SCRIPTURE Not like these is he who is the portion of Jacob, for he is the one who formed all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the Lord of hosts is his name. Jer 51:19
