

Bathari in Oman

Bathari is a language of southern Oman, but fewer than 20 people speak Bathari. The others from this people group have moved on to speaking Omani Arabic, Oman's trade language.

The Bathari people are Sunni Muslims who believe that Allah spoke through his prophet Mohammed and taught mankind how to live a righteous life through the Koran and the Hadith. They seek to live righteously according to Mohammed's teachings. They have never heard they need a sin-free savior.

Outreach Ideas

One of the main holidays for Sunni Muslims is Eid al Adha, the celebration of Abraham's willingness to sacrifice his son to Allah. They already understand the value of the sacrifice of a son; this can be a connection to the ultimate sacrifice of the ultimate Son.
