

Bayad in Mongolia

In the 13th century, the term "Mongol" grew into an umbrella term for a large group of tribes united under the rule of Genghis Khan. Ethnic distinctions among the Mongol subgroups are relatively minor. Tribal differences are usually not a political or social issue as Mongolia is a generally peaceful nation. The Bayad people are one of the Mongol tribes, residing in western Mongolia.

Obstacles

Mongolia is a very large country with limited travel facilities. Access to remote tribes requires effort. Almost half of the Bayad people are Buddhists. The form of Buddhism in Mongolia is the Tibetan form that is mixed with shamanism and spirit appeasement. It is difficult for them to understand faith in the living Christ.

Outreach Ideas

There are Bible resources in their Halh Mongolian language. The entire Bible, audio and visual resources, including the JESUS Film can be used by those willing to pay the price to reach Bayad people in Mongolia with the gospel.

🔊 bah-YAHD

POPULATION: 67,000

LANGUAGE: Mongolian, Halh

RELIGION: Buddhism

BIBLE: Complete

STATUS: Unreached

Prayer Focus

Mongolian Christian believers can glorify him by reaching the Bayad people. Pray for the Bayad people to have spiritual hunger and discernment that will lead them to the cross.

SCRIPTURE Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Heb. 4:16

PRAY for this people group to approach God's throne of grace and receive the mercy and grace found in Jesus Christ.