

Berta in Ethiopia

Very few of the Berta people in Ethiopia have accepted Christ. After several centuries of Arab Sudanese influence, most have embraced Islam. The majority are farmers.

Ministry Obstacles

Even though the Berta are officially Muslim, they believe in religious specialists who practice healing and display divination powers. The Berta believe these specialists have the ability to deal with evil spirits. They do not accept Christ's ways.

Outreach Ideas

There are many evangelical Christians in Ethiopia. These believers can go as missionaries and commit themselves to taking the gospel to all unreached tribes in Ethiopia.

Prayer Focus

There are a few Christians among the Berta. Pray for them to become firmly established in the faith, not wavering in their commitment to know and follow Christ. Pray for God's word to be translated into the Berta language. Pray for adequate supplies of clean drinking water and rainfall for their crops and livestock. Pray for rising literacy rates among
