

Rif Berbers in Morocco

The word “Rif” is an Arabic word meaning “the edge of cultivated area.” The Northern Shilha of Algeria and Morocco, known as the “Rif Berbers,” have numerous tribes of tough and hardened people eking out an existence on the harsh, uninviting slopes of the Rif Mountains. Berbers are indigenous to north Africa west of the Nile River, the largest concentration in Morocco.

Obstacles

Morocco is quite difficult to enter for Christian workers. There is a need for creative approaches. Practical needs abound in this difficult region. May they be met with disciples bringing resources and education to Rif Berbers.

Outreach Ideas

The JESUS Film, God's Story video, and gospel radio are available in the language of the Rif Berbers.

Prayer Focus

Pray for an abundant harvest this year from the Rif Berbers as a sign of God's caring heart and power. Pray for the Rif Berbers to have hearts that are willing to seek and find Jesus Christ. Pray that disciples, passionate for the salvation of Rif Berbers, would lay down their lives for them. Pray for fruitful efforts to make disciples and plant churches among Rif Berbers.

SCRIPTURE Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?
- (Matthew 7:15-16)

PRAY that the Lord gives this people group the discernment to recognize false prophets and the grace to know the true Prophet, Priest and King, Jesus Christ.
