

Chechens in Austria

Austria holds the fifth-largest Chechen population outside their homeland to the east in the Caucasus Mountains of Russia. Virtually all Austrian Chechens are trilingual, fluent in Chechen and Russian and competent in German. The majority of Chechens in Austria often reside in urban centers, with the rest working as farmers in rural areas.

Ministry Obstacles

Because they have historically fought against or have been refused aid from Christian and anti-religious nations, they are fiercely resistant to the gospel. Sometimes called the "Mafia of Russia," these strongly Islamic people are known for fighting. Christians among the Chechen people are likely to face torture or death.

Outreach Ideas

They desperately need missionaries to live among them, earn the trust of the local leaders, and courageously share the gospel.

Prayer Focus

Ask Almighty God to call workers who are trained in the Chechen language to help these Muslims begin a movement to Christ. Ask God
