

Druze in Lebanon

The Druze religion is an offshoot of Islam and appeared in the ninth century. They are firmly monotheistic. Druze hold the Koran as sacred. They also have their own inspired scripture called the Book of Wisdom. Druze believe in the transmigration of the soul. That is, at death, one's soul is instantaneously reincarnated, and it is reborn into another life. They are loyal to the country where they live. They are known as fierce soldiers. Druze in Lebanon speak Northern Levantine Arabic as their first language.

Ministry Obstacles

If a Druze man or woman becomes a follower of Jesus Christ, he or she will be excluded from the Druze community. The nation of Lebanon is currently experiencing chaos, violence and insecurity. This makes it difficult for ideas to spread.

Outreach Ideas
