

Gawamaa in Sudan

The Gawamaa people of Sudan are part of the Baggara people group. They are primarily nomadic cattle herders. Men and women do not eat together unless they are married. Because the Baggara as a whole are not an educated people, few are involved in political life. Nearly all Gawamaa Baggara are Muslim.

Ministry Obstacles

Since the Baggara are not highly literate, the good news of Jesus needs to come to them in oral form more than in written form.

Outreach Ideas

Those with skills in water purification and treatment could provide help and better health for this people group living in the dry climates of Sudan. There is a great need for help in the Darfur area. Humanitarian aid workers could provide much relief to the Gawamaa and other peoples in the area.

Prayer Focus

There may not be a single follower today of Jesus among the Gawamaa of Sudan. However, pray for those the Lord will soon call to himself. Pray they will live holy lives, and learn to be filled with the Lord's Spirit. Pray for peace throughout Sudan, and especially for peace between Sudan and the peoples of South Sudan.

SCRIPTURE But Peter and John answered them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge, for we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard. Acts 4:19-20

PRAY for this people group to listen to and to obey God. Pray that they hear God's message and tell others about His marvelous works.
