

Georgian Jew in Georgia

In Georgia, Jewish culture is integrated into the mainstream culture, but it still retains its distinct character. They are very Zionist in their hearts and love Israel very much, but they see Georgia as their homeland. Family members are very close-knit and loyal to each other. High moral standards are typical of Georgian Jewish families.

Ministry Obstacles

Today, the Georgian Jew are facing a rising tide of anti-Semitism. The Georgian economy is in a very poor state. As a result, water, food, fuel supplies, housing, sanitation, health services, and electricity have all become unstable.

Outreach Ideas

The people would more likely respond to the gospel if it is read in Georgian. They will need ambassadors for Christ who are very culturally sensitive.

Prayer Focus

Ask the Holy Spirit to soften the hearts of Georgian Jews, so they will be receptive to the gospel. Ask God to anoint the gospel as it goes forth
