

Gujarati in Australia

The Indian state of Gujarat has long been an important center for trade, and their merchants have been sent all over the world. Because their commercial skills have been combined with their natural dedication, the Gujarati have become successful in business ventures internationally. They have literally spread over the entire world to several countries. Large populations now live in the UK and East Africa. Thousands also live in Australia.

Ministry Obstacles

Often people who have material wealth are less open to accepting the abundant life Christ offers. For that reason, there is a very low percentage of Gujarati believers anywhere in the world, including Australia.

Outreach Ideas

Gujaratis are often shop owners and motel owners. Those who are willing to talk with them during their slower hours can have spiritual discussions and offer them gospel materials in Gujarati, their heart language.

Prayer Focus

Pray that Australian believers would reach out and share the love of Christ with the Gujaratis among them. Ask God
