

Intha in Myanmar

You have probably rowed a boat using your arms. How about using your feet? The Intha people row boats with their feet so that their arms are free to work on other things. The Intha live in central Myanmar in or on Inle Lake. Fishing and agriculture are the main occupations of the Intha people.

Ministry Obstacles:

The Intha have been Buddhists for hundreds of years. The Myanmar government actively works against Buddhists changing their religion.

Outreach Ideas:

Medical teams of believers can bring the Intha the benefits of modern medicine. Tourists can distribute Christian literature during their visits to Inle Lake.

Prayer Focus

Pray that the tiny fraction of Intha who claim to be followers of Christ would become part of strong, growing churches. Pray that the Lord would provide faithful pastors to lead the Intha churches. Ask the Lord to send Holy Spirit anointed workers to the Intha. Pray the hearts of the
