

English-speaking Jews in Papua New Guinea

The Jewish people in Papua New Guinea are mostly associated with the Gogodala tribe, which claims to be the lost tribe of Israel. There is a smaller group of Jewish people who use English as their primary language.

Ministry Obstacles

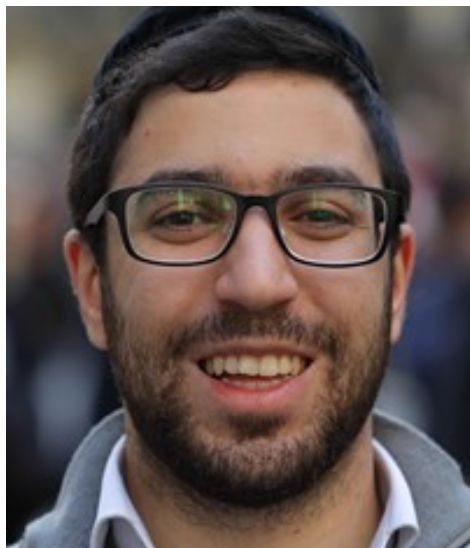

Jewish people tend to view Christianity as the religion of their oppressors rather than the fulfillment of what God promised all of humanity through Abraham centuries ago.

Outreach Ideas

Jewish people have a wonderful understanding of their connection with the Abrahamic Covenant. Tactful Christian believers can show them to connection between that and the fulfillment of it by Jesus Christ.

Prayer Focus

There are no followers of Christ among the Jewish people of PNG but pray for this to change in the 2020s. Jewish people have a wonderful understanding of their connection with the Abrahamic Covenant. Pray for the Lord to move among Jewish leaders in PNG to open the doors to Christ's ambassadors. May the Jewish people in PNG look to the Lord for guidance and truth, and not be satisfied with cultural traditions. May they begin a movement to Jesus Christ, finding ways to exalt him while honoring their culture.

SCRIPTURE And when he had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. (Revelation 5:8-9)

PRAY Praise the Lord that your prayers for the nations are as incense to him!
