

Judeo-Moroccan Jew in Morocco

Most of the remaining Jewish people in Morocco are elderly. They are trying to maintain their traditional culture and language. It's very possible that there won't be Jews in Morocco by the end of this century.

Ministry Obstacles

Moroccan Jews tend to view Christianity as the religion of their oppressors rather than the fulfillment of God's promise to their people and all tribes of the earth.

Outreach Ideas

Visual Bible resources like the JESUS Film may be useful in reaching this people group.
