Kashmiris in Jammu & Kashmir, India

Snow and glaciers in India? That's Kashmir, home of the Muslim Kashmiris. Kashmir is a popular tourist destination during the hot summer months. Unfortunately, Jammu & Kashmir remains highly disputed between India, Pakistan, and China, and there is sporadic fighting.

Ministry Obstacles
Most Kashmiri are devout Sunni Muslims. Their civilization has been heavily influenced by Muslim mystics and Persian culture. Kashmiri Muslims are convinced the Bible is wrong when it contradicts the Koran. Those who "convert to Christianity" are viewed as immoral, degenerate people. Many Kashmiris have heard of Jesus Christ, but view him merely as a prophet and teacher, not as the only one who can forgive our sins.

Outreach Ideas
Kashmiris in Jammu are known to be very hospitable and enjoy entertaining guests over tea, so visitors can take the gospel in an informal setting. Pray for workers to find persons of peace among them.
