

Kheng in Bhutan

The Kheng are found primarily in south central Bhutan and speak Kheng. The southernmost areas inhabited by the Kheng are off-limits to foreign travelers because of the threat posed by separatist groups across the border in the Indian state of Assam.

Ministry Obstacles

The Kheng are Tibetan Buddhists, but the shamanistic bon religion greatly influences their belief. It is very difficult for them to understand or embrace the ways of Christ.

Outreach Ideas

The few believers among the Kheng may be able to communicate the gospel message to the remainder of their people. They will need the burden, courage, love, and the power of the Holy Spirit to make any inroads into this Tibetan Buddhist community.

Prayer Focus

Pray that the few Kheng who came to Christ in the early 1990s will grow spiritually, find favor with family and friends, and safeguard the faith until the end. Pray they will have a burden for their community. Pray that the

🔊 kaeng

POPULATION: 35,000

LANGUAGE: Khengkha

RELIGION: Buddhism

BIBLE: New Testament

STATUS: Unreached

Kheng will be given the opportunity to hear the gospel in their mother tongue and in a fashion they can fully understand. Pray for spiritual discernment and a hunger for truth. Pray for increased availability and use of gospel resources and workers in their own language.

SCRIPTURE All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies. Psalm 25:10

PRAY Thank the Lord that He leads with love and faithfulness! Pray that many from today's people group will discover that and act upon it.