

Kurdit Jew in Israel

The Kurdit (Kurdish background) Jews are from the parts of the Middle East where ethnic Kurds live and Kurdish customs thrive. Most have migrated to Israel where they join other Jewish communities. Kurdit Jews have unique origins, cultural traditions, professions and beliefs.

Obstacles

The Kurdit Jewish community may have strong ties to their cultural and religious identity, which could be seen as a barrier to accepting Jesus as their Messiah.

Outreach Ideas

Christian radio could be one option for outreach. Fostering friendships by sharing culturally appropriate music and engaging with their leaders to reach the larger community can be effective.

Prayer Focus

Pray for opportunities for the gospel to reach the hearts of Kurdish Jews in Israel. Pray for open hearts and minds, and for doubts and questions to be addressed through the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Pray for a

🔊 KUR-dit joo

POPULATION: 9,600

LANGUAGE: Lishana Deni

RELIGION: Ethnic Religions

BIBLE: Portions

STATUS: Unreached

movement toward Christ among the Kurdit Jewish community. Pray for more church planting opportunities among them. Pray for Jewish leaders in Israel to recognize their Messiah.

SCRIPTURE If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting. (2 John 1:10)

PRAY that today's people group rejects false teachers and false doctrine.