

Arabic-speaking Moroccans in France

Moroccan Arabs living in France have lives that are very different from the ones they had in Morocco. There is greater freedom for women to leave the home and even work outside of the home. Since they have been exposed to western culture on a grand scale, their traditional culture and way of life have undergone many changes. Political unity has always been a dream among Arabs, but today the greatest tie among them is still the Arabic language.

Ministry Obstacles

Most Moroccan Arabs feel that accepting Christ would deny their Arabic identity. To be a Moroccan Arab means to be a Muslim. Therefore, they find it hard to conceive of being anything other than Muslim. They need to understand that Jesus Christ died to save people from every nation, including theirs.

Outreach Ideas

Believers in France need to befriend their Muslim neighbors, shower them with hospitality, invite Muslim family members into their homes and love them in the name of Christ.
