

Moroccan Arab in Norway

Most of the Moroccan Arabs in Europe are centered around urban centers and often have to work in low paying jobs. Many of their traditions are being lost. In Norway, there are many differences that have made some elements of life difficult for them.

Ministry Obstacles

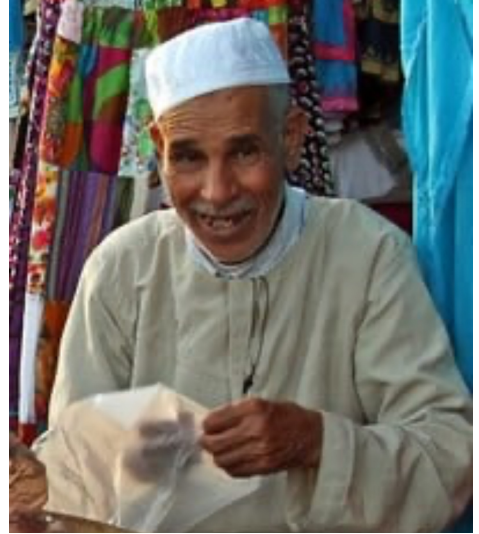

Maintaining their identity while being surrounded by European culture is very important to many Moroccan Arabs. This can limit openness to the gospel.

Outreach Ideas

On the other hand, some Moroccan Arabs want contact with the Norwegian population. Christian believers can interact with them, sharing the blessings of Jesus Christ.

Prayer Focus

Moroccan believers in Europe can be Christ's ambassadors to these Muslims. Pray for a church planting movement among Moroccan Arabic
