

Muong in Vietnam

Until northern Vietnam's communist revolution in 1945, Muong social organization was aristocratic, and a headman had absolute authority in his jurisdiction. Since that time, the Muong community has undergone enormous changes. Their nation has been transformed from a feudalistic society into a socialistic one.

Ministry Obstacles

There has been little missionary work among the Muong, though they are a large people group. They practice their traditional ethnic religion which connects them to their ancestors. This is part of their identity as a people.

Outreach Ideas

There are strong believers in Vietnam who can take Christ to this people group. Some of them can help them with their physical needs, leading to an openness to hearing about the eternal blessings of Jesus Christ.

Prayer Focus

Pray the few believers among the Muong will be united around the truth of Scripture, and will lead holy lives, wanting to know and serve Jesus Christ. Pray for the gospel to spread from one family to the next, transforming them in beautiful ways. Pray the Muong community will increasingly hunger to know the creator God. Pray they will be able to live in peace and prosperity. Pray that the Muong are able to embrace God's blessing through his Word for their families and communities.

SCRIPTURE The one who conquers will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life. I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. (Revelation 3:5)

PRAY for many names in this people group to be written in the Lamb's Book of Life. Pray that many from this people group are clothed with the righteousness of Christ.
