

Palestinian Arab in the West Bank/Gaza

Palestinians are traditionally hospitable and prepare elaborate dinners for their guests, regardless of their economic situation. Palestinians are predominantly adherents of Sunni Islam with a minority Christian community. The Holy Land, birthplace of Jesus Christ is also the birthplace of the Palestinian Church.

Obstacles

Turmoil in Israel and the West Bank / Gaza makes Christian witness to the Palestinians challenging, but turmoil sometimes makes people more open to change.

Outreach Ideas

Christians need to be concerned about the plight of the Palestinians, offering constructive ways for them to flourish. Christ died for the Palestinians, as well as for others.

Prayer Focus

Pray the Palestinians who know God would become wise in sowing the Word of God among their families and multiplying the blessings of God to other Palestinian households. Palestinian Arabs have had a strong Christian presence for generations, but most are nominal. Pray for a Christ-centered revival. Pray for the
