

Polish Jews in Israel

Many Jews fled violent persecution from the Romans around 2,000 years ago. They arrived in Europe and spread throughout the continent, influencing culture and history in Europe. However, because of intense persecution of Jews in Europe, they fled elsewhere. Through time, they have generally split into various groups based on whether they held to Jewish traditions and values. European Jews are diverse in religious practice. The traditional Hassidic movement was born in Poland and has gained popularity in the United States and Israel. While most Jews in Europe are religiously affiliated, some Jews are considered not religious.

Ministry Obstacles

Due to their history of rejecting Jesus as the true Messiah, they tend to view the gospel message as anti-Semitic.

Outreach Ideas

Some could create ministries specifically geared to Jews in Poland that emphasize conversations between Jews and Christ followers.

Prayer Focus

Pray that the few Polish Jewish believers would be so filled with the fruit of the Holy Spirit that they will draw others to the only Savior. Pray that God would awaken and soften the Jewish hearts to come to the realization of Christ as the true Messiah and commit their lives to Him. Pray that God would protect the Jews from violence. Ask the Holy Spirit to send workers in the harvest field and grant believers courage to evangelize.

SCRIPTURE When Jesus woke up, He rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Silence! Be still!” Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm. Mark 4:39

PRAY that the Lord brings His peace that passes all understanding into the hearts of this people group.
