

Susu in Sierra Leone

The Susu live mainly in the coastal areas of Guinea, Sierra Leone, Senegal, and Mali. They tend to live where there are many marshes and waterways. They often favor marriages between cousins, and they live as an extended family group. The Susu combine their Islamic faith with traditional beliefs. They believe that ghosts, spirits, and gods all inhabit the same land, and that witches have the power to change into animals and cause harm to their villages.

Ministry Obstacles

Spiritual forces influence the thinking of the Susu, and they need prayer to bring clarity and accuracy to their thoughts about the supernatural.

Outreach Ideas

The New Testament is available in the language of the Susu, as are other resources such as the JESUS Film. There is a need for workers to distribute these resources.

Prayer Focus

Pray the few followers of Jesus among the Susu people will be quick to turn from sin and will live holy and righteous lives. Pray for improved health care and good schools for the Susu and that parents will make schooling a priority for their children. Pray that God will release the people from bondage to spirits and that they will recognize Jesus as the One with the power to give them freedom from wicked spirits.

SCRIPTURE That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saint. (Ephesians 1:17-18)

PRAY for spiritual wisdom and light for the leaders of today's people group.
