

Tajik in Uzbekistan

Tajiks are one of the major people groups of Central Asia. Tajiks have repeatedly been invaded and conquered throughout their history. The armies of Alexander the Great, the Arabs in the seventh century, Genghis Khan, the Turks, the British, and the Russian empire have all had a profound impact on these people. They live in tight-knit communities and are a very hospitable people whether in their own country of Tajikistan or in neighboring Uzbekistan.

Ministry Obstacles

Most Tajiks are Sunni Muslims, although some are Shia, and one-tenth are considered non-religious. They remain closed to the gospel.

Outreach Ideas

Pray for humanly impossible obstacles to the gospel to be overcome by the Holy Spirit. Pray that many will come together for prayer and fellowship in the greatest name, that of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer Focus

There are very few known followers of Jesus Christ among Tajik people in Uzbekistan, so pray that this changes soon. Pray for a spiritual
