

Mamak in Malaysia

The Mamak live a simple life. They are not attracted to technology or education, and most live in settlements that are spread throughout rubber tree forests. Most Mamak people fuse animistic and Islamic beliefs. They believe in spirits that inhabit various places and things and they believe that ancestral treasures. The Mamak believe that they are descended from one of the nine children of Adam and Eve. The duty of those involved in leadership is to rule on social conflicts, divorce and carut (accidentally or wrongly saying things that hurt other persons).

Ministry Obstacles

Malaysia is trying to get tribal peoples to become Muslim, and Christian work among them is not welcome.

Outreach Ideas

There is a need for faithful prayer warriors, pounding the gates of heaven for the Mamak people. Pray the Lord will raise up prayer warriors for this purpose.

Prayer Focus

The Mamak have a variety of needs. Their most urgent need is the
