

Wolof in Senegal

The French expanded into Senegal during the 1800s, making it a colony of French West Africa. In 1946, the Wolof of Senegal were awarded French citizenship, and today, many Wolof have their homes in France. The Wolof follow a complex code of behavior that is based on their social status. Intermarriage among the three classes is a very rare occurrence.

Ministry Obstacles

The Wolof generally have not been open to the gospel. Pray this will change.

Outreach Ideas

Christian believers living to the south of Senegal may have access to the Wolof. Pray they be given a heart to attempt this.

Prayer Focus

Pray that Wolof believers will become effective and fruitful in sharing and discussing Bible stories with their own and other families. Pray for the few Christian believers among the Wolof, that they will grow in grace
