

Yintale Karen in Myanmar

Yintale is a Karen language with two subgroups. Yintale speakers are a rural people who grow their own rice and vegetables. They have livestock and fish for their meat supply.

Obstacles

Yintale speakers are Buddhist, but a large minority practices traditional ethnic religion. There are other Karen tribes that have many Christian believers, but not this one. God will have to start at the beginning with the Yintale Karen people.

Outreach Ideas

There are other Karen peoples who can send workers to the Yintale Karen.

Prayer Focus

Pray for workers to go who are anointed by the Holy Spirit. Pray for spiritual openness among Yintale speaking Karen people. Pray that their leaders would encounter Jesus Christ and his teachings. Pray for a
