

Agariya in India

The Zamral dwell primarily in Madhya Pradesh as a relatively small people group. Part of the working caste, their primary occupation encompasses labor and migratory jobs. They specialize in making baskets and, to a lesser degree, roofs from bamboo. They sell baskets and mats in the markets.

Ministry Obstacles

The Zamral practice Hinduism, the ancient religion of India. They worship and serve the gods of the Hindu pantheon in hopes that they can escape the Hindu reincarnation cycle. They do not have a personal or familial relationship with their gods as Christians do.

Outreach Ideas

Because most Zamral cannot read or write, literacy training would benefit them. Gospel radio can reach them.

Prayer Focus

Pray that those who know Jesus would find each other and gather together for fellowship. Pray they would find encouragement through tools like gospel radio. Most of all, the Zamral need to hear and understand the message of Jesus
