

Ahar in Nepal

The Ahar in Nepal consider themselves Brahmin, but some Brahmins do not like to mingle with them. The Ahar are usually the people who own most of the land in the areas where they live. They avoid menial work as a vocation and are thus ranked above other working castes in the ritual hierarchy. They only marry people from similar communities. They are Hindu by faith and worship Narsingdeo, their family deity, and Ganwat, their village deity.

Ministry Obstacles

Communities of higher status may feel less need for a savior than others do. As Jesus said, it is hard for the rich to enter the kingdom of heaven.

Outreach Ideas

Jesus came from an exalted, glorious position. That is perhaps a point that the Ahar can relate to.

Prayer Focus

Pray the Lord would give Ahar families understanding and responsive hearts when they hear about the love of Christ.

BIBLE: Complete

STATUS: Unreached

May they not be satisfied with their own righteousness.

Scripture materials in both printed and recorded form exist in the Awadhi language. Pray they would be effective.

SCRIPTURE For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts. Isa.55:8-9

PRAY that today's people group will understand that God's ways are far higher than theirs.
