

Audhelia in India

Where did COVID-19 come from? The Audhelia people believe that illnesses come from the wrath of a Hindu goddess. The Audhelia is a small hybrid caste located in the central states of India including Chhattisgarh. They are largely known as pig herders, but in modern day many are farm laborers.

Ministry Obstacles

The Audhelia are almost all Hindu, so finding open doors to speak into their lives is difficult. In the Hindu mindset, one can add many gods, but none are far above the others.

Outreach Ideas

For those that cannot read, the New Testament is available through audio recordings. The New Testament is available in the Audhelia native language, Chhattisgarhi. Bible translators need to translate the Old Testament, so the Audhelia can read the complete Bible and understand why they cannot depend on idols.

Prayer Focus

Child marriage is very common among the Audhelia. Many girls get married between ages five to seven. Pray for new laws to protect children and for Jesus' love for children to be revealed to them. Pray that there would be a movement to Christ among the Audhelia people that will spread to other people groups in Chhattisgarh.

SCRIPTURE Let the whole world bless our God and loudly sing His praises.
Ps 66:8

PRAY that today's people group will loudly sing His praises to other nations.
