

Rahmani in India

The Rahmani (or, Rai Bhat) work mainly as farmers. Many do not read, so the gospel will need to be given in oral forms. However, there are also prominent people among them, and the Rahmani surname is well known across a number of countries.

Ministry Obstacles

They are Sunni Muslims, and there is much social stigma about becoming a Christian in their families and communities. They need to find a way to embrace Jesus Christ without alienating the people they hold dear.

Outreach Ideas

Culturally appropriate music and skits about the miracles of Isa (Jesus) might help to turn their hearts and minds to the only Savior.

Prayer Focus

Pray for a spiritual breakthrough as there may be no followers of Christ among this Muslim people group. Pray for a spiritual hunger that will draw the Rahmani people to the only One who can save them from sin and death. Pray for workers to go to them and find those who will welcome them and listen to the message. Pray for Rahmani community leaders who will give Jesus a chance to provide their community with the abundant life He offers in John 10:10. Pray for a Disciple Making Movement to Christ among the Rahmani people group in this decade.

SCRIPTURE “I don’t know whether He (Jesus) is a sinner,” the man replied. “But I know this: I was blind, and now I can see!” John 9:25

PRAY that the Lord removes the spiritual blindness of today’s people group and they begin to see God’s truth revealed in Jesus Christ.
