

Harni in Pakistan

The Harni have a history of mercenary work, crime, and burglary that has followed them to the present day. They continue to struggle with this reputation and have had difficulty in moving forward socially and economically.

Ministry Obstacles

The Harni people are Sunni, the largest branch of Islam. They believe that Allah is the one, supreme God and that he has spoken through the prophet, Mohammed. They have been taught the Bible is in error, so the only way is through the teachings of Mohammed.

Outreach Ideas

The Harni people need to find ways to earn a good, constructive living. They need to be able to support their families. Humanitarian assistance could be a good way to reach them with the gospel.

Prayer Focus

Pray for the Harni culture to be renewed. Pray for the Holy Spirit to
