

Jirel in Nepal

Nepal is a small mountainous country that separates India and China. One of the people groups in Nepal that does not yet have a growing, evangelical church is the Jirel. The Jirel live in valleys of the highest mountains in the world, the Himalayas. Their primary occupations are agriculture and animal husbandry. The religion of the Jirel is a mixture of Buddhism, Hinduism and shamanism.

Ministry Obstacles

The Jirels have a low level of literacy. They will need to receive the good news in visual and audio forms.

Outreach Ideas

Medical teams can bring the Jirels the benefits of modern medicine. Teachers can go to the Jirels and teach them how to read and write using the Jirel New Testament.

Prayer Focus

Pray that the small Jirel church would be strong in the Lord. Pray that the Lord would give them loving and Bible-trained pastors. Pray the Lord would lead Jirel believers to share their faith with family and friends, resulting in vibrant disciples. Pray
