

Kapali in Bangladesh

Kapali people are one of the smallest ethnic groups in Bangladesh, and they are settled near different tea gardens. They believe that their ancestors originated from the forehead (Kapal) of Lord Shiva. Therefore, they are known as Kapali.

Ministry Obstacles

There are no known Christ followers among Kapali people in Bangladesh. They are Hindu. Instead of resurrection, they believe in reincarnation and the consequences of actions from their previous lives. It is unfathomable for one of them to dedicate their lives to Jesus Christ.

Outreach Ideas

Audio and visual Bible resources, including the entire Bible, exist in Bengali, the spoken language of Kapali people in Bangladesh. Christ followers could use these to expose them to the gospel.

Prayer Focus

Pray that Kapali people in Bangladesh would see that their old system of ethics and beliefs is not working and that their only hope is in Jesus Christ. Pray that intercessors worldwide would regularly pray for God's salvation of the Kapali people. Ask God to transform entire Kapali families and communities for his glory.

SCRIPTURE And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. Matt 10:28

PRAY for believers in today's people group to be courageous in their witness for Christ and fear God, not men.
