

Pasi in India

The legend about the origin of the community is that one day, a man was going to kill a number of cows. Parashuram was, at that time, practicing austerities in the jungle. Hearing the cries of the sacred animals, he rushed to their assistance, but the cow killer was aided by his friends. So Parashuram made five men out of kusha grass and brought them to life by letting drops of his perspiration fall on them. Hence arose the name Pasi, from the Hindi pasina (sweat).
