

Sunri (Hindu) in Bangladesh

The Sunri people live in India and Bangladesh, with approximately equal numbers in each. Traditionally, they distill alcohol though many of the Sunri have become merchants, traders, and government workers. The Sunri themselves practice Hinduism. They worship the gods of the Hindu pantheon, including Shiva and Lakshmi. The Sunri try to attain higher education.

Ministry Obstacles

Because of the practice and tradition of Hinduism, it may be difficult to persuade those with a pantheon that Jesus would be a replacement for all, rather than just another God among many.

Outreach Ideas

It may be beneficial for the Sunri to see the love and mercy of Christ lived out among them, in contrast to Islam or the gods of Hinduism.

Prayer Focus

Pray for a spiritual discernment and hunger that will drive them to the loving arms of Christ. Pray for the Sunri people to understand and embrace that Jesus wants to bless their families and neighborhoods. Pray for a movement of Jesus to heal and strengthen Sunri communities.

SCRIPTURE Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. (Hebrews 1:1-2)

PRAY that today's people group comes to understand that the one, true God has spoken through his son, Jesus Christ. Pray they would have the wisdom to listen to Jesus.
