

Xiang Chinese in China

Did you know there is a people group in China that has a writing system only understood by their women? They call themselves the Xiang, one of the Han Chinese peoples. The Xiang follow a mix of Chinese folk religion and traditional Asian religious beliefs.

Ministry Obstacles

The Xiang take great pride in their fighting abilities. They are independent to the point of rejecting outside ideas, including those coming from Christ followers.

Outreach Ideas

Martial artists who know Jesus might be able to establish contact with this people group. Ask the Lord to raise up the right people to go to them.

Prayer Focus

Pray that a strong community of followers of Christ would be established among the Xiang. Pray for a movement to Christ among this people group who are precious in God's sight. Ask God to show them that Jesus Christ is the sovereign,
