

Oroqen Mongolians of Inner Mongolia, China

The Oroqen Mongolians are spread over a vast mountain range area in northeast Inner Mongolia. For generations they have lived in tents covered by tree bark in the summer and deer skins in the winter. They are excellent hunters and fishermen, and some raise reindeer.

Ministry Obstacles

Shamanism has a hold on the lives. Their tendency towards drunkenness and violence have hampered evangelism efforts.

Outreach Ideas

They do have an 84 percent literacy rate, so they can be reached with printed materials; however, they have no scripture. They need one gospel book to be translated for them to learn about Jesus.

Prayer for the followers of Christ

There are only 30 known Christian believers. These few need to be led by the Holy Spirit to share their good news with family members and neighbors. Pray for spiritual hunger that will lead Oroqen people to Jesus Christ.

Pray for a church planting movement to grow in this remote region.

Pray for at least one gospel of the New Testament to be translated into their language and widely distributed.

SCRIPTURE Who is like you among the gods, O Lord—glorious in holiness, awesome in splendor, performing great wonders? Ex 15:11

PRAY that today's people group will understand that glory, holiness and power come only from our Lord and king.
