

Boyu Tibetan in China

The local Flower-Gathering Festival of the Boyu Tibetans takes place annually on the fifth day of the fifth month of the lunar calendar. They believe if they drink the spring water on the mountain before the sun touches it, they will be free from disease, and if they bathe in the water, all evil will be kept from them. During the Flower-Gathering Festival, the Boyu worship Lianzhi, the goddess of flowers.

Ministry Obstacles

They rely on demons, ghosts, and the spirits of disembodied deities to guide their decisions. Many Buddhist monks are able to call up fearsome demons.

Outreach Ideas

Perhaps their fear of the spirit world will draw them to the only one who can save them from it. Pray for power encounters and dreams and visions of Jesus.

Pray for the Church

There are only a handful of known Christians among the Boyu Tibetans today. Pray they will take Christ to their families and communities.

Pray for the Holy Spirit to give the Boyu people teachable and understanding hearts. Pray for Boyu families to be drawn by the Holy Spirit to seek forgiveness and to understand the adequacy of Christ's work on the cross.

SCRIPTURE And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people, and as he opened it all the people stood. And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, Amen, Amen, lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. Nehemiah 8:5-6

PRAY May this people group have Holy Spirit reverence for the Lord when they hear His word.
