

Bashgali in Pakistan

For hundreds of years, the Bashgali have lived in a place filled with conflict and war: Pakistan's Northwest Frontier Province. Since ancient times, this region has been invaded by many groups, making peace in the area rare. Though there is a history of Buddhism, the region is solidly Sunni Muslim. The local culture is strongly influenced by the dominant Pashtun people.

Ministry Obstacles

It can be highly dangerous for any Christian presence in the area. Anyone who wanted to share the ways of Christ would have to be living as a lamb among wolves.

Outreach Ideas

Prayer and kindness towards the Bashgali could be very important in a land where harshness and violence have been the norm for centuries.

Prayer Focus

Pray for the Bashgali people to have peace in their households and communities. Pray for the parents in the community to be able to send their children to school. Pray for movements of Christ to be spread throughout the region. May the Bashgali people find the answers of Christ and may the fragrance of Christ spread throughout Pakistan.

SCRIPTURE The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise. Psalm 51:17

PRAY for the Lord to break the spirits of members of this people group and bless them with joy of salvation and mercy.
