

Garre in Somalia

Although the Somali are all Sunni Muslim and share a common cultural heritage, they are divided by language distinctions and clan conflicts. One of these is the Garre sub-tribe. The Garre are located mostly in Kenya and Somalia, but a few live in Ethiopia. Most Garre are nomadic herdsmen, seasonally migrating with their camels, sheep, and goats. They live in portable huts made of bent saplings covered with animal skins or woven mats.

Ministry Obstacles

It is very difficult to reach nomadic people because you must go to them. Are there people willing to live like the Garre to reach them for Christ?

Outreach Ideas

Reaching nomads is difficult, but not impossible. Muslim and Buddhist missionaries have reached nomads. Why not followers of Christ? There are many stories in the Bible that appeal to nomads, especially those relating to nomads, like Abraham.

Prayer Focus

As far as we know, there are no believers among the Garre people. Pray for that to change this decade.

SCRIPTURE Being strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy; (Colossians 1:11-12)

PRAY May new believers among this people group walk in joy and love in the Holy Spirit.
