

Guibei Zhuang in China

During the Qin Dynasty (221-207 BC), half a million Han convicts were exiled by Emperor Qin Shihuang to the Lingnan region in southern China (now Guangxi and Guangdong). There they intermingled with the various branches of the Bai Yue nationality. The Zhuang today are thought to be the descendants of the Bai Yue.

Ministry Obstacles

Anyone who wishes to share Christ with the Guibei Zhuang would probably have to move to Guangxi Province in western China. There are also the usual obstacles of spiritual dullness and deceit that are common to all peoples.

Outreach Ideas

After much prayer and fasting, believers can go to Guibei Zhuang communities and pray for the sick and injured. Healing will open doors to the gospel.

Prayer Focus

Pray for boldness tempered by love for Guibei Zhuang believers as they attempt to take their precious Savior to their family members and communities. Pray for the Lord to show himself to the Guibei Zhuang, so they will know that he is the only God they should fear. Pray that this would be the decade where hundreds of Guibei Zhuang people embrace Jesus and take him to the lost in western China.

SCRIPTURE But I will declare it forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. Psalm 75:9, ESV
