

Liujiang Zhuang in China

China's Guangxi Province is made up mostly of people from the Zhuang people groups. They live similar lives and each subgroup, including the Liujiang, is unreached with the gospel.

Ministry Obstacles

The Zhuang are careful not to offend the spirit world that surrounds them. They believe in the spirits of the water, forest, mountain, village, etc. Fear of retaliation might be one of the reasons why they remain unreached.

Outreach Ideas

On the other hand, people with traditional religion are often the first to embrace Christ once they know that he can overcome all opposition of the spirit world. Han Chinese believers can also take Christ to their Zhuang neighbors.

Prayer Focus

There are a small number of Liujiang Zhuang people who bow their knees to Jesus Christ rather than local spirits. Pray that they would demonstrate Christ's victory over the
