

Wodaabe Fulani in Niger

The Fulani were first seen as a people group in the Senegambia valley in the eleventh century. They travelled east and south of the Sahara Desert for about the next four hundred years. They have several subgroups, one of which is the Wodaabe people. The Wodaabe people are noted for their art and their unusual behavior, such as beauty contests for the men.

Obstacles

The Wodaabe are noted for their taboos. Those who want to take Christ to them will need to be careful not to violate these if at all possible.

Outreach Ideas

The Wodaabe are artistic and are famous for their dyed cloth. The women do the embroidery.

Prayer Focus

Pray that the few Wodaabe who follow Christ would be filled with the fruit and the power of the Holy Spirit so they can lead others to the cross. Pray for the Lord to thrust out workers who are willing to brave the harsh lifestyle of Niger's Wodaabe people. Pray the Wodaabe people
